ELEVENTH ANNUAL STAFF

THORNTON JUNIOR COLLEGE

HARVEY - ILLINOIS

Dedication

1952 withered away, leaving us a record of the past and an indication of the future. To the new year, 1953, it left discoveries in medicine and science to be made, atomic energy to be domesticated, mechanisms to be invented, and its motto —

"Excelsior, onward and upward!"

To the accomplishments and memories of the past and to the discoveries and inventions of the future, then, we dedicate this annual.

Evening In Paris

"Quelle soiree superbe!" March 7 will be an evening long cherished by Joy-Ann Regnier, Staggette Sweetheart; Arlene Oedez, Maid of Honor; and the six other members of the court. It will hold memories, too, for all the Co-ed club members and the alumni who attended "le bal" in the Crystal ballroom of the Del Prado hotel.

Jean Mathieu, mistress of ceremonies, introduced the members of the court as each one walked to her place in front of the orchestra. After all eight members had been introduced, Jean announced the names of the Sweetheart and Maid of Honor. Last year's Sweetheart, Diane Duffie, then placed the crown on the head of the 13th Staggette Sweetheart.

Student Council

The Student council, composed of eleven representatives from the student body, acted as TJC's decision-maker during the year. Any college problem was settled by this council.

The representatives and faculty brought in new ideas for progress and promoted activities that made college life more enjoyable.

The council distributed funds from the activity fees to the Co-ed and Men's clubs, to athletics, and to the Courier and Caldron.

It sponsored social activities, such as the Winterlude, the between-semester dance, and the spring prom.

Miss Grace Holton and Mr. Lee Dulgar are the faculty advisers.

Lambda Epsilon

The students who are always striving for the highest goal for their future are the members of Lambda Epsilon. Their knowledge will help pave the road of progress.

The honorary society of Lambda Epsilon was established in 1938 to honor students of high scholastic standing.

A student who has 42 honor points during one semester and is a credit to the junior college is eligible for Lambda Epsilon. He is then admitted on probation for one semester. If he keeps his grades high, he is presented with a gold key and is permanently admitted to the society.

The sponsor is Dr. Minna Jewell.

Officers: Rose Senesac (vice-president), Arwalt Kehle (president), Pat Novotny (secretary).

Row 1: Pat Novotny, Rose Senesac, Arwalt Kehle, Jeanne Jaracz.
Row 2: Kent Hetfield, Robert Froelich, Joe Marchello, Richard Goesel.

Officers: Joy Regnier (president), Evelyn Baggs (treasurer), Clara Krause (2nd vice-president), Jeanne Jaracz (secretary), Rose Senesac (1st vice-president).

Co-ed Club

"One for all, all for one!" This spirit of cooperation is the foundation of the Co-ed club, and it is the underlying factor which has contributed to the success of all Co-ed activities since the club was founded 26 years ago.

At the Little Sister tea in September, each freshman woman drew the name of the sorority to which she would belong and for which she would earn scholarship and activity points. Each of the six groups — Alpha, Beta, Gamma, Delta, Epsilon, and Zeta — is led by a sophomore woman.

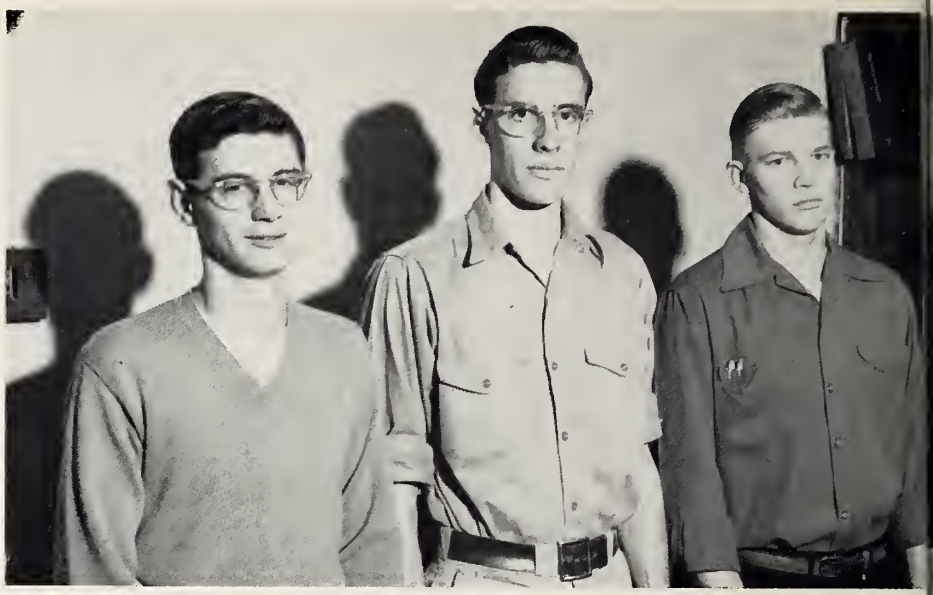
The council — made up of all the group leaders, the club officers and the club's sponsor, Miss Grace Holton — guides the members for the functions of the year, which include the Staggette, the Mother-Daughter banquet, and the Spring luncheon.

In keeping with the modern trend, the club aims to promote a sense of responsibility, a competitive spirit in scholarship and in activities, and a friendly relationship between the men and women.

Although much of their time is spent in the kitchenette of the Union room selling food and preparing for teas, the Co-eds' haven is the Co-ed room with its comfortable sofas and chairs.

CO-EDS AT WORK

Sorority Leaders: Phyllis Rigoni (Gamma), Jean Mathieu (Beta), Charladine Walls (Zeta), Dorothy Griffith (Epsilon), Lorraine DeHaan (Delta), Helen Schisewski (Alpha).



Officers: Norm Paasch (vice-president), George Rohde (president), Bob Biel (secretary).

Men's Club

Since its organization in 1927, the Men's club has expanded considerably. The first Men's club claimed 25 members. In 1952 the Men's club had a membership of 177 of the 243 men enrolled in TJC.

The officers during the fall semester were George Rohde, president; Norm Paasch, vice-president; Bob Biel, secretary; and Joe Marchello, treasurer. During the second semester, Rohde left college and Paasch took the post of president and a vice-president was appointed by the board. Mr. Lee Dulgar is the sponsor.

The Men's club board, a new addition to the club, was installed during the first semester. The board, together with the officers, conducted the business of the club.

The first major project of the new board members was the revision of the constitution. Besides that job, they sponsored the Christmas dance, the Mother-Son banquet, open houses after the games, splash parties, and jointly sponsored the Mixer and the Jinx Jump with the Co-ed club.

With a spirit of cooperation and goodwill, the members of the Men's club fulfilled their purpose: to promote college spirit, to sponsor social activities, and to promote good fellowship.

Lettermen's Club

On November 24, 1952, the Lettermen's club of Thornton Junior college was once again organized. The club's chief purpose is to give recognition to Junior college men who have earned a letter in some sport. A club of this type has not existed at J. C. since 1946.

Throughout the school year the club sponsored various dances and held an annual banquet.

Coach Pete Schloss is the sponsor. The 1952-1953 officers were Maurice Fernandez, president; Ray Olsen, vice-president; Harold Carter, secretary; and Bill Paarlberg, treasurer.

These men and other members of the club drew up a new constitution under which the club was governed.

Officers: Harold Carter (secretary), Maurice Fernandez (president), Ray Olsen (vice-president), William Paarlberg (treasurer).

Spanish Club

To give Spanish students more of an opportunity to use the language and to learn about the Spanish customs, the Spanish club was organized in 1948.

Monthly meetings were held at which only Spanish could be spoken. Stunts, games, skits, and short plays were an important part of this year's activities.

Everyone looked forward to the Christmas party when the Spanish club joined hands with the other language clubs to make the affair a success.

The Spanish club is under the sponsorship of Miss Florence Wunderlich.

Row 1: Leona Kostyrka, Dorene Ortley, Beth Rich, Gerry Kramer, Monica Nees.

French Club

Trips to French plays and movies, parties, picnics, and short plays highlighted the events of this year's French Club.

L'Alliance Francaise is a social organization which gives the students a chance to use the French language and to learn more about the French people and their customs.

At the monthly meetings, held in the Union room, French songs were sung and French games were played.

The International Language party given at Christmas time was the outstanding activity of the year. This was given in conjunction with the Spanish and German clubs.

Miss Florence Wunderlich is the faculty adviser.

Officers: Tom Sponsler (sergeant-at-arms), Charles Kogan (secretary), Ralph Haworth (president), Pat Novotny (program chairman), Carol Rasmus (treasurer), Barbara Lenox (vice-president).

Row 1: Beverly Koch, Jeannine Brosseau, Dot Griffith, Pat Day, Janis Henning, Malvin Kasputis, Lora Schmidt.

German Club

Officers: Malvin Kasputis (secretary-treasurer), Robert Dickson (vice-president), Svea Almos (president).

Activities in Der Deutsche Verein, the name given to the German club, are under the supervision of Mr. Arnold Koester, counselor to the junior college students and a faculty member.

The club was organized to give the students a better understanding of the customs and activities of the German people.

German folk dancing and songs were part of the entertainment at monthly meetings.

The officers of the German club this year were president, Svea Almos; vice-president, Robert Dickson; secretary-treasurer, Malvin Kasputis.

Drama Club

Curtain going up!

Under the direction of Mr. E. C. Ohlert, the Drama club skyrocketed into a series of activities.

"Ten Little Indians," a romantic, suspenseful, three-act mystery, was presented February 27 and 28.

Two one-act plays, "Boy Meets Family" and "Thank You, Doctor," were given for the Drama club open house held in January. Shirley Kurgan acted as student director.

In addition to presenting plays, the students learned to apply make-up and arrange scenery.

Membership is open to any student who is interested in the field of dramatics.

Dr. Minna Jewell is the sponsor of the club.

Officers: William Lambert (treasurer), Jerome Modjeski (president), Joan Szesny (publicity chairman), Svea Almos (secretary).

Row 1: Barbara Lenox, Jean Mathieu, Shirley Kurgan, Lois Kreml, Jody Szesny.

Football

With a record turnout of football aspirants for the 1952 season, Coach Schloss' J. C. Tigers took advantage of this promising material and made a satisfactory record.

Even though the Tigers won only two games and lost four, their offensive strength must be taken into consideration. J. C. rolled up 107 points against its opponents, and the opposition tallied 105 points.

Some of that offensive strength was due to one George Pochos, Tiger left halfback, who scored 41 points in six games to lead the team in scoring.

An additional offensive spark was supplied by the Tigers' co-captains — Bob Biel, end, and Maurice Fernandez, tackle — who both possessed a never-say-die disposition.

Co-Captains: Bob Biel, Maurice Fernandez, Coach Schloss.

Basketball

The Tiger basketball team for 1953 possessed great skill and ability, but the won and lost record did not do J. C. proper justice. The team had great spirit and determination, and as the season progressed, the Tigers scored some impressive victories.

Paul Baptist, Mike Brown, Joe Chisholm, Ray Olsen, and George Rohde composed the starting or first five throughout the season. Strong bench support from Bob Biel, James Egge, David Hanson, Frank Mech, Scott Seaton, Norm Swanson, Boyd Wagenaar, and Ed Zapotoczny was a vital factor in the team's abilities.

Although the Tigers did not win any honors this year, they played like champions against their opponents. In each game they presented all they had in spirit and ability.

Re-establishing an intramural basketball program which had been dropped for several years, the Men's club of Thornton Junior college promoted the development of a standardized basketball program for J. C. men.

The league was composed of four teams which played a game each Friday for a two-month period. The teams were the Hamms, Basketeers, Cubs, and Rover Boys.

Championship honors went to the Hamms, captained by Maurice Fernandez. Don Weinmann, Joe Marchello, Pat Patterson and Duke Nalon composed the remainder of the championship five. The Men's club presented a plaque to the winners with the name of the champion team engraved upon it.

Cheerleaders

"We'll loyally back the Orange and the Black!" truly was the motto of J. C.'s Pep-Cats, who followed the J. C. teams to spur them on to victory.

Starting the '52 semester with a pep assembly, these cheer leaders aroused a keener enthusiasm in sports at the junior college. Students could not help responding to the Pep-Cats' vivacious energy.

This year Patt Christy — captain of the group — Jean Bergman, Jeanne Jaracz, Clara Krause, Donna Taylor, Bette Wells, and Jacque Murray spent much time and effort working to keep "school spirit" alive. They, as loyal captains, never gave up the ship.

Mr. Roy Swanberg is their sponsor.

Although only two baseball lettermen returned this season, the prospects for 1953 were above normal expectancy. Coach Koester had the remnants of a team which captured championships for two successive years. In 1951, J. C. shared the Illinois Junior College conference championship with Joliet, and the following year, 1952, J. C. was co-champion with Joliet and La Grange.

The two lettermen, Dan Kaminski and Allen Erickson, plus Paul Baptist, Mike Brown, Maurice Fernandez, Dick Murawski, William Serne, C. Robert Watson, and Jim Egge easily made the J. C. baseball team an outstanding one.

Track

Coach Schloss' track team for 1953 had two lettermen returning from the previous year, Bob Biel and Joe Marchello, the high scorers on the team last year.

Last year's team had brilliant individual competitors, but the team as a whole did not do so well. However, the trackmen were impressive in all respects.

W. A. A.

W.A.A. is an organization to further the women's interest in sports, to teach them fair play, and to help them become better friends.

There are four sport seasons a year; this year's were baseball, volleyball, ping-pong and badminton, and swimming. A season is the completion of five out of six practices. Any woman who completes two seasons gets her numeral. A big "T" is awarded to the woman who finishes six out of eight sport seasons.

This year the W.A.A. sponsored "Halloween Hangover", a turnabout sock hop. The spring house-party was another of its activities.

A team of ten W.A.A. women went to DeKalb for a playday to play volleyball; the victorious women took four out of five games. The J. C. women challenged the J. C. men during the volleyball season, and took one out of four games.

There were eight sophomore and three freshman women on the board which met the second Wednesday of each month to discuss and plan the various activities.

Miss Marthalou Gray is the sponsor.

Tennis

With Jim Wegrzyn and Chuck Westcott supplying the skill which placed J. C. third in league standings last year, the tennis team, coached by Pete Schloss, embarked on a very successful season in 1953.

Westcott captured third place in the singles last year, and then Wegrzyn and Westcott combined their talents to place third in the doubles.

Al Paluskiewicz, another letterman, Westcott, and Wegrzyn led the team this year.

Administration and Faculty

Teachers Are People

Doctor Hanson

In the short time that Dr. Ernest M. Hanson has been at Thornton, he has endeared himself to students and faculty who respect him for his integrity, sincerity, and high ideals. All have felt the warmth of his friendliness. His spirit of cooperative leadership has won the admiration of the community as well as that of the school.

These fine qualities augur well for the future of Thornton under his wise and kindly guidance.

Dr. Hanson received his B.S. from Hamline university, his M.A. from the University of Minnesota, and his Ed.D. from the Colorado State College of Education. He also attended Stanford university and the University of Colorado.

Dean Beck

A man with authority, friendliness, understanding, and diplomacy is Dean James L. Beck.

Dean Beck has served Thornton Junior college for the past 26 years, giving the college a name in the modern world.

Through his ability as a dean, the college students have made use of the motto, "Knowledge is Progress," for many graduates of Thornton Junior college have become successful in various fields.

Dean Beck holds three degrees: an A.B. from Ohio university, a B.S. in Education from Ohio university, and an M.A. from the University of Chicago.

Seated: Dr. C. E. Simon, Mr. Edwin Waterman, Mr. William B. Kane.
Standing: Mr. George E. Gilley, Mr. Henry J. Van Der Giessen, Mr. George H. Meyer, Mr. Fred T. Ehlert.

Board of Education

The backbone of every school is its Board of Education. The Thornton Junior College Board is made up of seven civic-minded Thornton Township citizens who volunteer their services to direct the affairs of Thornton Township High school and Junior college for a period of three years. These men receive no material gain for the time and energy they spend in the interest of the high school and college.

Mr. Edwin R. Waterman of South Holland is president of the Board, which includes Mr. Fred T. Ehlert, Riverdale; Mr. George E. Gilley, Harvey; Mr. William B. Kane, Harvey; Mr. George H. Meyer, Homewood; Dr. C. E. Simon, Harvey; Mr. Henry Van Der Giessen, South Holland.

Miss Holton

A woman who has done much to make Thornton Junior college outstanding is Miss Grace Holton.

Miss Holton is one of the most active and helpful instructors in the college. In addition to teaching, she acts as the dean of women and the competent sponsor of the Co-ed club. As a result, the women of J. C. have learned to regard Miss Holton as a friend who is always ready to help them.

Miss Holton received her B.A. and A.M. degrees from Duke university.

Mr. Koester

Mr. Arnold F. Koester, director of student personnel and guidance, and the head of the psychology department, advises the students on whatever problems they may have. He is especially interested in those students who need vocational and academic counseling or help with personal problems.

Being interested in extra-curricular activities, Mr. Koester is the college's head baseball coach.

Mr. Koester received his bachelor's degree from the University of Iowa and his master's degree from the University of South Dakota.

Miss Halverson

Miss Halverson has given generously of her time to help JC-ites since she became the Junior college librarian in 1945.

The task of keeping the library in excellent condition is a tremendous one, but through it all she remains calm, patient, and smiling.

Miss Halverson's efforts to have the library a pleasant place in which to work and her desire to help anyone who wishes information are greatly appreciated by all J. C. students.

Miss Halverson received her B.A. from Macalester college and her B.L.S. from Drexel institute.

Miss Mitchell

"Do unto others" is the motto of TJC's likeable, friendly registrar, Miss Edith H. Mitchell. She willingly helps everyone whether it be giving unlisted addresses, selling books, or just listening to problems.

Miss Mitchell graduated from Thornton Township High school and then went to business school in Chicago. She later came back to work in the high school office; she transferred to the junior college office in 1948. "Mitch" has been a friend of JC-ites ever since.

"Mitch" is usually the first person to be met at TJC and usually one of the last to be forgotten.
